

BJFCI NEWS

BJFCI member Saiful Alam elected NPC president, Farida secretary

Express Report

The Daily Jugantor's Acting Editor Saiful Alam, an honorary member of BJFCI has been elected new president of the National Press Club (NPC) while the Daily Ittefaq's Farida Yasmin has been re-elected general secretary.

The daily Bangladesher Khobor's Editor Azizul Islam bhuyian, an honorary member of BJFCI has been elected as Vice President and the daily Samokal's City Editor Shahed Chowdhury and Mainul Alam of Daily Ittefaq, members of BJFCI elected as Joint secretary of the National Press Club.

Senior journalist Omar Farroque was elected senior vice president with 442 votes, while Azizul Islam Bhuiyan was elected vice president with 554 votes.

Shaymal Dutta of Daily Bhorerkagoj has been elected as Treasurer. The 10 new members are Kuddus Afrad, Shahmsuddin Ahmed Charu, Rezwanul Haque Raza, Shahnaz Begum, Sanaul Haque, Kalyan Saha,

The daily Bangladesher Khobor's Editor Azizul Islam bhuyian, an honorary member of BJFCI has been elected as Vice President and the daily Samokal's City Editor Shahed Chowdhury and Mainul Alam of Daily Ittefaq, members of BJFCI elected as Joint secretary of the National Press Club.

Jahiduzzaman Farroque, Syed Abdal Ahmed, Bakhtiar Rana, and Hasan Arefin.

The biennial election of the managing committee of the press club was held on December 18, Tuesday. A total of 1,022 out of 1,212 members cast their votes from 9am to 5pm.

National Press Club President Saiful Alam of Daily Jugantar, an Honorary Member of BJFCI and secretary Farida Yasmin of Daily Ittefaq, flanked by Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury, Editor of The Daily Observer and Information Advisor to the Prime Minister, Molla Jalal, BFUJ President and others, show the victory sign after their panel won the National Press Club election on Tuesday, December 18, 2018